Working definition of a FOIA

One of the problems editing this Overview is that there is no good definition of a FOIA. The working definition I use includes: it has to be a law in strict sense, it must include the right of access to information, this right has to be enforceable and there must be complaint, court and high court appeal possibilities. [Decrees are included if they meet the same standards.]

As a consequence this overview contains all kinds of FOIAs, including poor ones like those of for instance Italy and Zimbabwe.

A second important part of the definition, and in line with the practitioner's point of view, is that the FOIA must be in power for at least the executive part of the trias politica.

As a consequence a FOIA which is only adopted or approved or is still a draft will be listed in the B-section of this overview.

I would like to add more ingredients to the definition. For instance I would like to skip FOIAs which require a special interest or FOIAs which charge for processing requests, or more in general FOIAs which do not meet international standards like the Aarhus and Tromsø Treaties or international jurisprudence.

National and sub-national FOIAs

All non-national/non-federal FOIAs are seen in this list as sub-national, even if they are of a country in legal sense like Aruba or Scotland.

The country definition in this overview is broader than the UN or US definition, for instance Kosovo and Palestine are included.

From a litigation point of view country is quite a complex concept. Some national FOIAs override sub-national ones, some sub-national ones are a lex specialis except for some topics, some sub-national countries do have an own court system except for the high court appeals, etc. The situation in for instance Canada, Mexico, Netherlands and UK is almost not comparable.

Tips very welcome

Do you have suggestions for improvement, corrections or other remarks, please mail so that I can use them in the next update of this overview.

This Overview is a Special of the Fringe journals

About the editor/publisher: Roger Vleugels

In 1986, I started my own office and began working as a legal advisor and lecturer specialized in freedom of information and intelligence. In 2001, I added the publishing of the two Fringe journals to my activities. I lecture on freedom of information at journalism schools, universities and corporations. I have taught students in or from Argentina, Aruba, Belgium, Bulgaria, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, Germany, Hungary, Indonesia, Italy, Iran, Ireland, Macedonia, Mexico, Moldova, the Netherlands, Norway, Slovakia, South Africa, Sweden, Turkey and the United Kingdom. Since 1988, I have as a legal advisor / acting lawyer filed for or with my clients more than 4,000 FOIA requests. Most of these clients are journalists in the Netherlands but also special interest groups, NGOs, researchers and private persons. As an intelligence specialist, I research and lecture on this topic. I also comment in the press, brief members of parliament and advise journalists and lawyers.

The format of the Fringe journals

The main goal of the Fringe journals is: not being a regular magazine. The journals are purely a research tool. Articles are not selected for their content but for the facts or trends within them. One of the consequences is that Fringe does not discriminate between information and disinformation.

Other goals are trying to publish news in early stages, before the news is established with an overall focus on next to mainstream. After doing so Fringe will not cover such a topic further, unless there is again something special, and above all: Fringe hopes to be a bit wayward.

Surfing, searching, stringers and sources

Articles are gathered for Fringe by a small group of Dutch and foreign stringers, some of whom work covertly. Without the work of these stringers Fringe would not be possible. Additionally I do some of the gathering on my own, mainly by netsurfing and maintaining a range of subscriptions, feeds and alerts. Some of the more specialised sources are: Access Info Europe, AIP Bulgaria, Article 19, BeSpacific, Bigwobber, Bits of Freedom, Centre for Law & Democracy, Cryptogram, CFI, Cryptome, EDRI-gram, EFF, EPIC, FOIANet, FreedomInfo, Geheim, Infowarrior, Intelforum, Intelligence Online, Memory Hole, Mother Jones, National Security Archive, NatoWatch, NISA, Privacy International, RCFP, Secrecy News, StateWatch, Terrorism Monitor and Wired.

Two Fringe journals

Fringe Intelligence gathers intelligence news from established media and outlets beyond the mainstream. The journal offers articles covering classical intelligence and counterintelligence, criminal and private espionage and more. The main focus is on forensic and operational information, and not on bureaucracy, politics and the formal/legal aspects of intelligence. Fringe Intelligence does not concentrate on terrorism. Special sections highlight NARINT, or Natural Resources Intelligence [dealing with energy, rare earth, water and climate intelligence], and Intelligence 2.0 [IT sector-generated private intelligence]. These sections look beyond jihad, cyber and other previous or present threats.

Fringe Spitting publishes for freedom of information [FOI] specialists, investigative journalists and other researchers, with a special focus on FOI practitioners and requesters, news on caseload, jurisprudence, litigation, tools and trends. Space is also devoted to recently disclosed "old news" on intelligence, revealed by FOI requests.

Taken together, the two biweekly journals contain about 100 articles per month selected from a variety of media sources. Almost all articles are internet downloads. Over 90% are in English. Less than 10% are focused on the Netherlands. The contents stand or fall with the quality of the source.

3,100 subscribers

In terms of circulation, both Fringe journals enjoy a top ranking in their sector, respectively OSINT and FOI, among the world-wide communities of independent email journals and mailing lists.

Fifty-five percent of the subscribers are intelligence specialists, 30% journalists and 15% FOIA specialists. They live in 110 countries: 35% in NL, 5% in UK, 25% in US and 35% in the rest of the world. Fifteen percent of the subscribers are government employees [half of whom work in intelligence services] and 15% are employed by universities and colleges.

Pose questions directly or by Linked In and Twitter

Please feel free to mail me, Roger Vleugels, directly. You can also contact me by the networks I belong to. More than 1,000 subscribers have joined one or more groups managed by me on LinkedIn: FOIA Specialists; Web Specialists; NARINT; Dutch Intelligence Watch Specialists or Intelligence 2.0.

I am also active on Twitter. Most of my tweets are in Dutch, but I also tweet breaking news in English: @RogerVleugels. For privacy and usability reasons, I do not like Facebook. Therefore I am only passively present on that network.

Subscriptions are free of charge and include both journals

Subscribers receive both journals free of charge. A voluntary contribution is very welcome, however. Producing Fringe is a time-consuming project. Each year in January I ask subscribers for a voluntary contribution.

Copyright law [see the Fair Use Restriction at the bottom of this colophon] forbids me to charge for journals like Fringe. Therefore, the only way to collect enough money to keep this service going is by voluntary contributions or donations.

The percentage of paying subscribers is about 8%. To guarantee the service in the long run 400-500 paying subscribers on a yearly basis are needed.

To start a subscription e-mail: Start Fringe in the subject line, to roger.vleugels@planet.nl

To stop a subscription e-mail: Stop Fringe in the subject line, to roger.vleugels@planet.nl

Voluntary contributions or donations are very welcome

My suggestion:

48.00 Euros per year for individual subscribers [this equals one Euro per issue]

24.00 Euros per year for students and others with modest means

200.00 Euros per year for news media or other organizations with multiple users/subscribers or subscribers who are well to do
