

\Republic of the Philippines
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Quezon City, Metro Manila

Fifteenth Congress
Second Regular Session

House Bill No. _____

Introduced by

AN ACT TO STRENGTHEN THE RIGHT OF CITIZENS TO INFORMATION HELD BY THE GOVERNMENT,
CREATING FOR THIS PURPOSE AN INFORMATION
COMMISSION, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Philippines in Congress assembled:

SECTION 1. Short Title. – This Act shall be known as the “Freedom of Information Act of 2011.”

SECTION. 2. Declaration of Policy. – The State recognizes the right of the people to information on matters of public concern, and adopts and implements a policy of full public disclosure of all its transactions involving public interest, subject to the procedures and limitations provided by this Act. This right is indispensable to the exercise of the right of the people and their organizations to effective and reasonable participation at all levels of social, political and economic decision-making.

SECTION. 3. Definition of Terms. – As used in this Act:

(a) “Information” shall mean any record, document, paper, report, letters, contract, minutes and transcripts of official meetings, maps, books, photographs, data, research material, film, sound and video recordings, magnetic or other tapes, electronic data, computer stored data, or any other like or similar data or material recorded, stored or archived in whatever form or format, which are made, received or kept in or under the control and custody of any government agency pursuant to law, executive order, rules and regulations, ordinance or in connection with the performance or transaction of official business by any government agency.

(b) “Commission” shall refer to the Information Commission created by virtue of this Act.

(c) “Government agency” shall include the executive, legislative and judicial branches as well as the constitutional bodies of the Republic of the Philippines including, but not limited to, the national government and all its agencies, departments, bureaus, offices and instrumentalities, constitutional commissions and constitutionally mandated bodies, local governments and all their agencies, regulatory agencies, chartered institutions, government-owned or –controlled corporations, including wholly-owned or controlled subsidiaries, government financial institutions, state universities and colleges, the Armed Forces of the Philippines, the Philippine National Police, all offices in the Congress of the Philippines including the offices of Senators and Representatives, the Supreme Court and all lower courts established by law.

(d) “Official records” shall refer to information produced or received by a public officer or employee, or by a government agency in an official capacity or pursuant to a public function or duty, and is not meant to be a stage or status of the information.

(e) “Public records” shall include information required by law, executive orders, rules, or regulations to be entered, kept and made publicly available by a government agency.

SECTION. 4. Access to Information. – Every person who is a Filipino citizen has a right to and shall, on request, be given access to any record under the control of a government agency. Government agencies shall make available to the public for scrutiny, copying and reproduction in the manner provided by this Act, all information pertaining to official acts, transactions or decisions, as well as government research data used as a basis for policy development, subject to the exceptions enumerated under section 6 of this Act, regardless of their physical form or format in which they are contained and by whom they were made.

SECTION. 5. Presumption. – There shall be a legal presumption in favor of access to information. The request for information may be denied only if it clearly falls under the exceptions provided under this Act.

SECTION. 6. Exceptions. – Access to information shall be granted unless:

(a) The information is specifically authorized to be kept Secret under guidelines established by an executive order, and in fact properly classified pursuant thereto: Provided, That 1) The information directly relates to national security or defense and its revelation may cause grave damage to the national security or internal and external defense of the State; or 2) The information requested pertains to the foreign affairs of the Republic of the Philippines, when its revelation shall/may unduly weaken the negotiating position of the government in an ongoing bilateral or multilateral negotiation or seriously jeopardize the diplomatic relations of the Philippines with one or more states. Provided further, That the executive order shall specify the reasonable period after which the information shall be automatically declassified or subject to mandatory declassification review, and that any reasonable doubt as to classification and declassification shall be settled in favor of the right to information;

- (b) The records of minutes and advice given and opinions expressed during decision-making or policy formulation, invoked by the Chief Executive to be privileged by reason of the sensitivity of the subject matter or of the impairment of the Chief Executive's deliberative process that would result from the disclosure thereof. Once policy has been formulated and decisions made, minutes and research data may be made available for disclosure unless they were made in executive session.
- (c) The information requested pertains to internal and/or external defense, law enforcement, and border control, when the disclosure thereof would:
 - (i) unduly compromise or interfere with any legitimate military or law enforcement operation, or
 - (ii) unduly compromise or interfere with the prevention, detection or suppression of criminal activity, the effective implementation of immigration controls and border security, or
 - (iii) deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication, or
 - (iv) lead to the disclosure of the identity of a confidential source, including a government, or foreign agency or authority or any private institution which furnished information on a confidential basis, and, in the case of a record or information compiled by a law enforcement authority in the course of an investigation or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation, information furnished by a confidential source, or
 - (v) disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law, or
 - (vi) endanger the life or physical safety of any individual.
- (d) The information requested consists of drafts of orders, resolutions, decisions, memoranda or audit reports by any executive, administrative, regulatory, constitutional, judicial or quasi-judicial body in the exercise of their regulatory, audit and adjudicatory function.
- (e) The information requested is obtained by any committee of either House of Congress in executive session.
- (f) The information requested pertains to the personal information of a natural person other than the requesting party, and its disclosure would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of his or her personal privacy, unless it forms part of a public record, or the person is or was an official of a government agency and the information relates to his or her public function or the person has consented to the disclosure of the information;

- (g) The information requested pertains to trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a natural or juridical person other than the requesting party, obtained in confidence or covered by privileged communication, and/or filed with a government agency, whenever the revelation thereof would seriously prejudice the interests of such natural or juridical person in trade, industrial, financial or commercial competition.
- (h) The information is classified as privileged communications in legal proceedings by law or by the Rules of Court.
- (i) The information requested is exempted by law or the Constitution, in addition to those provided in this section.
- (j) The information has already been made accessible as provided for in Section 10.

For letters (c) to (j) of this section, the determination whether any of these grounds shall apply shall be the responsibility of the head of office of the government agency in custody or control of the information, or any responsible central or field officer/s duly designated by him.

Provided, that:

1. The exceptions are strictly construed;
2. The exceptions are not used to cover-up a crime, wrongdoing, graft, or corruption;
3. The President, the Supreme Court, the Senate, the House of Representatives, and the Constitutional Commissions may waive an exception with respect to information in the custody of offices under their respective supervision or control, when they deem that there is an overriding public interest in disclosure; and
4. The exceptions do not constitute authority to withhold information from Congress, nor authority for the executive branch of a local government unit to withhold information from the legislative body of such local government unit.

SECTION. 7. Mandatory Disclosure of Information. – (a) All government agencies shall upload on their websites, which shall be updated monthly, a register of the following:

- (i) Freedom of Information Manual in full;
- (ii) Rules of procedure, descriptions of forms available or the places at which forms may be obtained, and instructions as to the scope and contents of all papers, reports, or examinations;
- (iii) Substantive rules of general applicability adopted as authorized by law, and statements of general policy or interpretations of general applicability formulated and adopted by the agency, including subsequent amendments;

(iv) Public interest documents or records, including, but not limited to:

- (1) Annual Budget of Government Agencies
- (2) Itemized Monthly Collections and Disbursement
- (3) Summary of Income and Expenditures
- (4) Component of the IRA Utilization
- (5) Annual Procurement Plan and Procurement List
- (6) Items to Bid and the corresponding Terms of Reference
- (7) Bid Results on Civil Works, and Goods and Services
- (8) Abstract of Bids as Calculated
- (9) Procurement contracts entered into by a government agency
- (10) Construction or concession agreements or contracts entered into by a government agency with any domestic or foreign person or entity
- (11) Private sector participation agreements or contracts in infrastructure and development projects under Republic Act No. 6957, as amended by Republic Act No. 7718, authorizing the financing, construction, operation and maintenance of infrastructure projects
- (12) Public funding extended to any private entity
- (13) Bilateral or multilateral agreements and treaties in trade, economic partnership, investments, cooperation and similar binding commitments
- (14) List of persons or entities who were granted licenses, permits or agreements for the extraction and/or utilization of natural resources given by any government agency
- (15) Statement of Assets and Liabilities of the public officers of the government agency
- (16) Guarantees given by any government agency to government-owned or -controlled corporations and to private corporations, persons or entities

The register shall contain a brief description of the transaction involved, including, but not limited to: the nature and object of the transaction, the parties and amounts involved, the key steps undertaken towards its conclusion, and the relevant dates provided that contracts and agreements involving an amount of at least fifty million pesos (P50,000,000.00) shall be uploaded in full on the website of the concerned government agency or the Official Gazette Online subject to the succeeding section. A covered record shall be enrolled in the register not later than 30 working days from its perfection or issuance.

(b) All government agencies shall over time endeavor and build the capacity and practice to upload in full all other contracts, agreements, or treaties covered under this section, specially those that are of the highest public interest by reason of the amounts involved and the impact of the transaction to the public. All government agencies must ensure that they have a compliant website within two (2) years from the effectivity of this Act.

(c) Should an agency lack the capacity to comply with the website uploading requirement of this section, the agency shall initiate a capacity-building program, coordinate with another appropriate agency, or use an alternative mechanism, to facilitate substantive compliance not later than three (3) years from the effectivity of this Act.

SECTION. 8. Promotion of Openness in Government. – (a) Duty to Publish Information – Government agencies shall regularly publish, print and disseminate at no cost to the public and in an accessible form, in conjunction with Republic Act 9485, or the Anti-Red Tape Act of 2007, and through their website, timely, true, accurate and updated key information including, but not limited to:

- (1) A description of its mandate, structure, powers, functions, duties and decision-making processes;
- (2) A description of the frontline services it delivers and the procedure and length of time by which they may be availed of;
- (3) The names of its key officials, their powers, functions and responsibilities, and their profiles and curriculum vitae;
- (4) Work programs, development plans, investment plans, projects, performance targets and accomplishments, and budgets, revenue allotments and expenditures;
- (5) Important rules and regulations, orders or decisions: Provided, that they be published within fifteen (15) calendar days from promulgation;
- (6) Current and important database and statistics that it generates;
- (7) Bidding processes and requirements; and
- (8) Mechanisms or procedures by which the public may participate in or otherwise influence the formulation of policy or the exercise of its powers.

(b) Accessibility of Language and Form – Every government agency shall endeavor to translate key information into major Filipino languages and present them in popular form and means.

(c) Improving Capability – Every government agency shall ensure the provision of adequate training for its officials to improve awareness of the right to information and the provisions of this Act, and to keep updated as to best practices in relation to information disclosure, records maintenance and archiving.

SECTION. 9. Coverage. – This Act shall cover all government agencies as defined under section 2 of this Act.

Section. 10. Exemption From Compliance. -- The government agency is excused from complying with a subsequent identical or substantially similar request from the same requesting party where it has previously complied with a request for information unless a reasonable interval has lapsed between compliance with the previous request and the making of the current request provided that the government agency complies with Section 24 of this Act.

SECTION. 11. Additional Protection of Privacy – While providing for access to information in public records, this Act also affords full protection of the right to privacy of individuals, as follows:

(a) A government agency must ensure that personal information in its custody or under its control is disclosed only as permitted under this Act;

(b) A government agency must protect personal information in its custody or under its control by making reasonable security arrangements against such risks as unauthorized access, collection, use, disclosure, or disposal;

(c) An employee, officer or director of a government agency who has access, whether authorized or unauthorized, to personal information in the custody of the agency, must not disclose that information except as authorized under this Act.

SECTION. 12. Administrative Liability. – The acts enumerated in this Section shall be tantamount to gross neglect of duty and shall constitute grounds for administrative and disciplinary sanction against any public official or employee who willfully and knowingly commits the following:

(a) Refusal to promptly forward the request under Section 22 of this Act to the public officer within the same office or agency responsible for officially acting on the request when such is the direct cause of the failure to disclose the information within the periods required by this Act;

(b) Failure to act on the request within the periods required by this Act;

(c) Refusal to comply with the decision of his immediate supervisor, the Commission or of any court ordering the release of information;

(d) Approval of policies, rules and regulations manifestly contrary to the provisions of this Act, and which policies, rules and regulations are the direct cause of the denial of a request for information.

Any complaint against a public official or employee under this section shall be accompanied by a recommendation from the Information Commission, and filed with the government agency with disciplinary authority over the said public official or employee, as mandated under existing laws.

SECTION. 13. Criminal Liability. – (a) Any public official or employee who falsely denies or conceals the existence of information mandated for disclosure under this Act shall be liable for the crime of removal, concealment or destruction of documents as defined under Article 226 of the Revised Penal Code.

(b) Any public official or employee who destroys, or causes to be destroyed, information and/or documents being requested under this Act, for the purpose of frustrating the requesting party's access thereto, shall be liable for the crime of removal, concealment or destruction of documents as defined under Article 226 of the Revised Penal Code.

(c) Any private individual who knowingly induced or caused the commission of the foregoing acts shall be liable as principal by inducement in the prosecution of public officials or employees under this section.

SECTION 14. Mere Denial Not a Ground for Liability. – A mere denial in good faith of a request made pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall not constitute grounds for administrative sanction or criminal liability.

SECTION. 15. Creation of an Information Commission. – There is hereby created an independent Information Commission, which shall enjoy fiscal autonomy. Its approved annual appropriations shall be automatically and regularly released.

SECTION. 16. Composition of the Commission. – The Commission shall be composed of a Chairman and two commissioners who shall be natural-born citizens of the Philippines with proven competence, probity and integrity, and expertise on human rights and/or the right to information, and has not run for any elective position within six (6) years prior to appointment; provided, that at least one of them is a member of the Philippine Bar with at least ten years experience in the practice of law.

The Chairman and commissioners shall be appointed by the President of the Philippines for a term of six (6) years without reappointment, through a transparent and consultative selection process. Of those first appointed, the Chairman shall hold office for six years, a commissioner for three years, and the last commissioner for two years, without reappointment. Members of the Commission shall enjoy security of tenure, and shall not be suspended or removed from office except for just cause as provided by law.

The Chairperson and the Members of the Commission shall receive the same salary and privileges as that of the Chairperson and Members, respectively, of the independent Constitutional Commissions.

SECTION. 17. Vacancies. Vacancies in the membership of the Commission shall be filled in the same manner in which the original appointment was made, provided that if a vacancy occurs before the end of term of a member, the appointment shall only be for the unexpired term of the predecessor. If there are at least two (2) members in office, vacancies in the membership of the Commission shall not impair the exercise of its powers or the execution of its functions.

SECTION. 18. Restriction on other employment. The members of the Commission may not engage in any other employment during their tenure as members of the Commission.

SECTION. 19. Rules of Procedure. The Commission shall prescribe its own rules of procedure, which shall be included in the Implementing Rules and Regulations referred to in Section 29.

SECTION 20. Powers and Functions of the Commission. – The Commission shall have the following powers and functions:

- (a) Ensure compliance of government agencies with the provisions of this Act;
- (b) Receive complaints, institute investigations, prepare reports on disposition of complaints and resolution of any investigation it initiates, and, in cases it deems appropriate, publicize any such report, provided that in resolving any complaint or investigation the Commission shall act as a collegial body. For this purpose, the Commission may be given access to any information in executive session subject of any complaint and to collect the information necessary to perform its functions under this Act;
- (c) Hear, adjudicate complaints and resolve appeals filed by applicants;
- (d) Hold any person in direct or indirect contempt and impose the appropriate penalties, following the same procedures and penalties provided in the Rules of Court;
- (e) Administer oaths, and issue subpoena requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and/or the production of such books, papers, contracts, records, statement of accounts and other documents as may be material to the investigation or adjudication conducted by the Commission;

- (f) Recommend the filing of administrative sanctions or criminal action against public officials or employees upon a positive finding of malicious intent involving appeals brought before it;
- (g) Design and review the criteria for classification, declassification and custody of privileged and confidential information;
- (h) Act as partner of the National Archives in the preparation and application of criteria for the inventory, classification and storage of documents, and for the organization of departmental and agency files;
- (i) Supervise, and in case of non-performance, issue recommendations to the departments and agencies for the enforcement of the provisions of this Act;
- (j) Monitor the compliance of government agencies or instrumentalities on their obligations under this Act to ensure access to information and to monitor the compliance on their security and technical measures including recommending the necessary action in order to meet minimum standards for protection of personal information and other exempted information pursuant to this Act;
- (k) Provide technical support to departments and agencies in the formulation and implementation of their information programs to comply with this Act;
- (l) Prescribe a template for the request forms for access to information as well as the forms for access to, and correction of, personal data;
- (m) Promote and, if applicable, carry out the training of government officials in access to information and personal data protection;
- (n) Publish a compilation of agency system of records and notices, including index and other finding aids;
- (o) Hold regular consultations with the public and information users to give feedback on compliance by government bodies with obligations under this act.
- (p) Submit an annual public report to Congress on the information accessed based on the data presented by the departments and entities contemplated in this Act, as well as the feedback from the public. This report will include at least the number of requests for access to information filed with each department and agency; the results obtained; the time of reply; the number and results of the matters brought to the Commission; as well as the difficulties encountered to enforce the Act.
- (q) Prepare its annual budget plan for inclusion in the General Appropriations Act.

- (r) Whenever necessary, avail itself of the assistance of any national or local law enforcement agency or instrumentality of the government to execute under its immediate and direct supervision any of its final decisions and orders.
- (s) Any other duties and functions conferred thereto by this Act, its Regulations or any other applicable provision.

SECTION. 21. Implementation Requirements. – (a) For the effective implementation of this Act, all government agencies shall prepare a Freedom of Information Manual, setting forth the following:

(1) The location and contact information of the head, regional, provincial and field offices, and other established places where the public can obtain information or submit requests;

(2) The types of information it generates, produces, holds and/or publishes;

(3) A description of its record-keeping system;

(4) The person or office responsible for receiving requests for information;

(5) The procedure for the filing of requests personally, by mail, or through the identified electronic means;

(6) The standard forms for the submission of request and for the proper acknowledgement of the request;

(7) The process for the disposition of the request, including the routing of the request to the person or office with the duty to act on the request, the decision-making process, and the grant or denial of access and its implementation;

(8) The procedure for the administrative appeal of any denial for access to information;

(9) The schedule of fees;

(10) The process and procedure for the mandatory disclosure of information under Section 7 of this Act; provided that, should the agency lack the capacity to comply with Section 7 of this Act, a brief description of its plan to facilitate compliance within three (3) years from the approval of this Act; and

(11) Such other information, taking into consideration the unique characteristics of an agency, that will help facilitate the effective implementation of this Act.

(b) The foregoing information shall also be posted in its website and bulletin boards, and shall be regularly updated;

(c) In no case shall the absence of the aforementioned Manual be a reason for the denial of any request for information made in accordance with this Act.

(d) The heads of each of the departments and agencies may designate liaison units or Committees who shall coordinate with the other units of the agency in implementing this act. The composition, functions and duties of these liaison units or Committees shall be set out in the Implementing Rules of this Act and shall be included in the Freedom of Information Manual.

SECTION. 22. Procedure of Access. (a) Any person who wishes to obtain information shall submit a request to the government agency concerned personally, by mail, or through electronic means. A person who is unable, because of illiteracy or due to being a person with disability, to make a written request for information may make an oral request, and the public official who receives the oral request shall reduce it to writing, and include his name and position within the government agency, and give a copy thereof to the person who made the request. The request shall state the name and preferred contact information of the requesting party, and reasonably describe the information required, the reason for the request of the information and the preferred means by which the government agency shall communicate such information to the requesting party: Provided, That the stated reason shall not be used as a ground to deny the request or to refuse the acceptance of the request, unless such reason is contrary to law. If the request is submitted personally, the requesting party shall show his current identification card issued by any government agency, or government or private employer or school, or a community tax certificate. If the request is submitted by mail or through electronic means, the requesting party may submit a photostatic or electronically scanned copy of the identification, or other convenient means as determined by the agency.

(b) The request shall be stamped by the government agency, indicating the date and time of receipt and the name, rank, title and position of the receiving public officer or employee with the corresponding signature, and a copy thereof furnished to the requesting party. In case the request is submitted by electronic means, the government agency shall provide for an equivalent means by which the requirements of this paragraph shall be met. Each government agency shall establish a system to trace the status of all requests for information received by it;

(c) The request may indicate the requesting party's preferred mode and means of receiving the information requested, provided that the mode and means are reasonable, taking into consideration equipment normally available to the concerned government agency.

(d) A government agency may communicate the information requested in a form other than the preferred means whenever such preferred means would unreasonably interfere with the effective operation of the agency, the agency has no capability in communicating the information in the preferred format or be detrimental to the preservation of the record.

(e) The government agency shall comply with such request as soon as practicable, and in any case within fifteen (15) working days from the receipt thereof. The period may be extended whenever the information requested requires a search of the government agency's field or satellite offices, examination of voluminous records, the occurrence of fortuitous events or other analogous cases.

(f) The government agency shall, in writing or through electronic means, notify the person making the request of the extension, setting forth the reasons for such extension and the date when the information shall be made available, which in no case shall result in an extension of more than twenty (20) working days.

(g) Once a decision is made to grant the request, the person making the request shall be notified of such and pay the required access and processing fees.

SECTION. 23. Access and Processing Fees. – Government agencies may charge a reasonable fee to reimburse the actual cost of reproduction, copying or transcription and the communication of the information requested.

SECTION. 24. Notice of Denial. – If the government agency decides to deny the request, in whole or in part, it shall, as soon as practicable, and in any case within fifteen (15) working days from the receipt of the request, notify the person making the request of such denial in writing or through electronic means. The notice shall clearly set forth the ground or grounds for denial and the circumstances on which the denial is based. Failure to notify the person making the request of the denial, or of the extension, shall be deemed a denial of the request for access to information.

SECTION. 25. Remedies in Cases of Denial. –

(a) Every denial of a request for access to information may be appealed to the Head of Agency, following the procedure mentioned in Section 21 (a) (8) of this Act: Provided, That the appeal must be filed within fifteen (15) calendar days from the receipt of the notice of denial and must be decided within fifteen (15) calendar days from filing. Failure to resolve the appeal within the aforementioned period shall constitute a denial of the appeal;

(b) If the appeal is denied, the requesting party may appeal to the Information Commission within fifteen (15) days from receipt of the denial. The decision of the Information Commission shall be final and executory, subject to the Supreme Court's certiorari jurisdiction under the Constitution.

(c) In resolving an appeal brought under the preceding paragraph (1), the Commission is empowered to receive the information subject of a claim of exception under section 6 herein and examine such in camera to determine the sufficiency of the factual and legal basis of such claim, when it cannot be reasonably determined through evidence and circumstances apart from the information.

(d) The remedies under this section are without prejudice to any other administrative, civil or criminal action covering the same act.

(e) The remedies available under this Act shall be exempt from the rules on non-exhaustion of administrative remedies and the application of the provisions of Republic Act No. 9285, otherwise known as the Alternative Dispute Resolution Act of 2004.

SECTION. 26. Keeping of Records. – a) Government agencies shall create and/or maintain in appropriate formats, accurate and reasonably complete documentation or records of their organization, policies, transactions, decisions, resolutions, enactments, actions, procedures, operations, activities, communications and documents received or filed with them and the data generated or collected. These shall include working files such as drafts or notes, whenever these have been circulated within the agency for official purpose such as for discussion, comment or approval or when these contain unique information that can substantially contribute to a proper understanding of the agency organization, policies, transactions, decisions, resolutions, enactments, actions, procedures, operations, and activities;

b) Government agencies shall identify specific and classes of official records in their custody or control that have continuing historical, administrative, informational, legal, evidentiary, or research value for preservation by such agencies or their legitimate successors, or for transfer to the National Archives of the Philippines. In addition, the National Archives of the Philippines shall likewise identify specific and classes of official records that it shall require agencies to preserve and transfer to it.

c) In addition to the specific and classes of official records identified for preservation under letter (b) of this section, the following shall not be destroyed:

- 1) Records pertaining to loans obtained or guaranteed by the government;
- 2) Records of government contracts;
- 3) The declaration under oath of the assets, liabilities and net worth of public officers and employees, as required by law; and
- 4) Records of official investigations pertaining to allegations of graft and corruption of public officers.

d) Government agencies shall prepare, following standards and period promulgated pursuant to Republic Act No. 9470 or the National Archives of the Philippines Act of 2007, a records management programs that includes the following:

- 1) A records maintenance system for the creation, selection, classification, indexing and filing of official records that facilitates the easy identification, retrieval and communication of information to the public;

- 2) A records maintenance, archival and disposition schedule providing a listing of records under current use, for retention by the agency, for transfer to the National Archives, or for destruction: Provided, That destruction of the official records may be implemented only upon approval of the National Archives of the Philippines; and
 - 3) A specifications of the roles and responsibilities of agency personnel in the implementation of such system and schedule.
- e) In addition to its function as repository of all rules and regulations issued by agencies as provided under Book VII, Chapter II of the Administrative Code of 1987, the University of the Philippines Law Center shall, in coordination with the Office of the President which has exclusive editorial and printing jurisdiction over the Official Gazette, and with other relevant agencies, maintain a database, and publish the same in print in Official Gazette or in digital or online form, the following:
- 1) All laws of the Philippines and their amendments, from the period of the Philippine Commission to the present;
 - 2) All presidential issuances from November 15, 1935 to the present, including but limited, to executive orders, presidential proclamations, administrative orders, memorandum circulars, general orders, and other similar issuances;
 - 3) A database of all appointments and designations made by the President of the Philippines; and
 - 4) Opinions of the Secretary of Justice.

SECTION. 27. Publication in Official Gazette. For purposes of mandatory disclosure as provided in section 7 of this Act, online publication in the Official Gazette website shall be considered official publication provided there shall be a timestamp in the said document.

For purposes of compliance with Article 2 of the Civil Code of the Philippines, publication of the following in the online version of the Official Gazette, with the corresponding timestamps on the document, shall be considered as official publication:

- a) All important legislative acts and resolutions of a public nature of the Congress of the Philippines;
- b) All executive and administrative orders and proclamations of general application;
- c) Decisions or abstracts of decisions of the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals or other courts of similar rank, as may be deemed by said courts of sufficient importance to be so published;
- d) Such documents or classes of documents as the President shall determine from time to time to have general application or which he may authorize to be published.

However, other documents or classes of documents as may be required to be published by law, such as petitions and/or legal notices in connection with land titles, naturalization or special proceedings shall continue to be published in the print version of the Official Gazette or in any newspaper of general circulation for purposes of compliance with the publication requirement.

SECTION 28. Act Not a Bar to Claim of Right to Information Under the Constitution. No provision of this Act shall be interpreted as a bar to any claim of denial of the right to information under Article III, Section 7 of the 1987 Constitution.

SECTION 29. Implementing Rules and Regulations. Within ninety (90) days from the appointment of the members of the Commission, the Commission shall promulgate implementing rules and regulations to effectively implement the provisions of this Act.

SECTION 30. Appropriations Clause. - The Commission shall be provided with an initial appropriation of Twenty-Five Million Philippine Pesos (Php25,000,000.00) to be drawn from the national government. Appropriations for the succeeding years shall be included in the General Appropriations Act.

SECTION 31. Separability Clause. – If any section or part of this Act is held unconstitutional, no other section or provision shall be affected.

SECTION 32. Repealing Clause. – All laws, decrees, executive orders, rules and regulations, issuances or any part thereof inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, including sections 18, 24 and 25 of Executive Order No. 292 in relation to Article 2 of Republic Act No. 386, Memorandum Circular No. 78 dated 14 August 1964 (Promulgating Rules Governing Security of Classified Matter in Government Offices), as amended, and Section 3, Rule IV of the Rules Implementing Republic Act No. 6713 (Code of Conduct and Ethical Standards for Public Officials and Employees), are deemed repealed.

SECTION 33. Effectivity. – This Act shall take effect fifteen (15) days after its publication in at least two (2) national newspapers of general circulation.