OGP Access to Information Working Group

Steering Committee Self-Nomination Form

The Open Government Partnership's Access to Information Working Group is forming a Steering Committee comprised of one government and one civil society representative from each of the four designated regions. The purpose of the steering committee and its elected members is to assist the co-anchors of the ATI Working Group to develop governance procedures, identify opportunities for engagement, and to support the implementation of the annual working group plan.

By completing and submitting this self-nomination form, the applicant agrees to have their submission information distributed to members of the ATI Working Group and to be included in the upcoming OGP Steering Committee election. This form is to be submitted to Megan.Card@cartercenter.org by Friday, March 18, 2016. Please review the entire application carefully before beginning your submission.
